Why would you want to meet Chris Bertish? And why should your organization hear what he has to say?

As his audiences will tell you, it is the combination of Chris's achievements that makes him such a force for change. It is what he has discovered and uncovered - in the middle of a lonely ocean, at the top of 60ft waves or at the front of executive boardrooms - about the key importance of next-level research, planning and preparation that inevitably leads to success. It is understanding of depths of human passion, spirit and the seemingly endless pool of resilience and perseverance we, as a species, can tap in to. And how we can all transcend our own imagined limits and achieve the seemingly iMPOSSIBLE in business, sport and in life.

As an adventurer, he spent 93 days and traveled 7500 km from Morocco to Antigua, across the entire Atlantic, alone unassisted on a stand-up paddle board. As a pioneer, he conquered the exhilarating world of big wave surfing to win the 2010 Maverick's Big Wave Invitational, in the biggest waves in paddle history. As an entrepreneur, he has grown multiple international buinsses, regardless of how stormy the economic climate. As a philanthropist, he is constantly seeking to leave the world better than he found it, and is an ambassador for multiple international conservation non-profits creating a major impact. As a global thought leader, he is in the Einstein's Institute Top 100 Global Visionaries, and was selected as one of Africa's Top 5 Motivational Speakers. As a keynote speaker, Chris is in the unique position to fundamentally shift your organization into a higher gear.

Companies Chris has worked with include:

Chris has done more than most of us can even dream about, and has the scars and life-lessons to prove it.

Over the years, he has found that there are many common threads that tie together excellence in elite sports, extreme expeditions and success in business. Through a series of emotionally-charged and challenging keynotes and workshops, he now shares the power of the stories only he can tell and, more importantly, the priceless, hard-won knowledge and life lessons each of those stories contains.

In the last few years Chris has shared the stage with Bill Clinton and George W Bush, has spoken at multiple global TEDx events, the World Economic Forum and the World Wildlife Fund, and has shared his insights with companies like Google, NASA, Schneider Electric, Southern Wine & Glazer, Coca-Cola, Mercedes Benz, Cisco and SAP.

Chris is also a best-selling author, award-winning director, dedicated conservationist, and passionate educator.

Chris is an amazing human!! Hearing how he maintained his positivity and mental health through his incredible voyage is amazingly inspirational. His talk was very timely; reminding us of the essential elements and tools required to maintain a positive outlook during these trying times. Chris's authentic delivery and positive energy left our team uplifted and inspired!"

KATRINA TEMPERO - UX Manager, Google

Chris provided us with an authentic view of his own isolation experiences and shared top tips that were easy to incorporate into daily life to help us navigate through this crisis and even beyond. I believe anyone could benefit from learning and applying these tools in their life. Extremely grateful to have been a part of this session and to have shared in the wisdom of Chris's insights."

VANESSA GILL - Regional Manager, Cisco ANZ

He's an expert on shifting his comfort zone, and it's clear through his public speaking that he is right in his comfort zone. He teaches on finding your greatest potential, and coming from such a legend as Chris, I was left feeling empowered to evaluate where in my life I could more intentionally "dial it up" and follow my passions. If there's ever an attitude for gratitude that should be shared on a big stage (or virtual event), then Chris' story is one for the records. This was one of our most successful talks at Salesforce."

KELLY COWDEN - Industry Events & Sponsors, Salesforce

Chris' story is one of powerful and lasting self-determination which was perfectly timed given the personal and professional challenges we are all facing during the global lock-down. The talk is on-point, impactful, inspiring and would be likely to benefit any team hoping to gain perspective on where they are at present and how to not only survive, but how to thrive, in the face of change."

ROBERT BAIGRIE CFA - Head of Developed Markets, Asia Pacific Conservation International

Chris has to be one of the most interesting people on the planet. His 10 Tools Talk on dealing with Isolation is so timely and was extremely helpful for all of us in our team, given the current events. Our team came away from the talk energized, with some valuable tools we can apply right now to our lives and with a fresh perspective. Our only wish is that we could have had several more hours to hear more of Chris' stories from his various adventures. "

ERIC NOETH - Principal, Advent International

His incredibly inspiring talk stuck deeply in my mind and motivated me to: get back into fitness, take on intentional nutrition for health rather than just pleasure, re-engage in the practices that put my feet and mind back on the ground so I can be present and in the moment by moment excellence of our human experience (My wife and family thank him). I take my hat off to Chris and thank him for the gift of his boggling and articulate story of how far beyond the place where we usually stop in life, we really can go."

MICHAEL EASTWOOD - Senior System Engineer, Jet Propulsion Laboratory, NASA

Chris spoke to sell out events in Durban, Cape Town and Johannesburg and received standing ovations at these events and feedback from our clients has been nothing short of spectacular. Chris has an amazing story to tell and he does so with unlimited passion and drive, Chris is the consummate professional and it was a pleasure dealing with him throughout."

BRETT WOOD - Marketing Director, Sales Guru Live

After an inspiring address based on his beautiful and courageous true story, Chris deservedly received a massive standing ovation from our international audience in financial services. His story is simply Breathtaking! "
